

"Tayiwa," In God We Trust

An original song by Herbert, a Samaritan Scholar in Uganda

Verse 1:

*I found a supporter, a special supporter, different from all others in the world.
One who loves without deceit and in truth
Those who commit their lives to him, he faithfully and trustfully cares for them.
He loved me so much as a true human, without undue expectations.*

Verse 2:

*A human heart is not truthful and is so deceitful!
Today, they laugh with you and show they care,
Yet within, they jeer at you and despise you
So, I choose to ignore them and look only to my Creator*

Chorus:

*He does not disappoint or abandon me; he is not deceitful in his heart
Even when the world lets me down, Jesus is present; he does not disappoint those who trust him completely*

Verse 3:

*There are some girls who pretend to be good at heart
When you give them your heart, Maama, they break it
Most annoyingly, they make you lose all your friends
So, I choose to ignore them and look only to my Creator*

Chorus:

*He does not disappoint or abandon me; he is not deceitful in his heart
Even when the world lets me down, Jesus is present; he does not disappoint those who trust
him completely*

Bridge

We praise the Lord every time we get the chance—not once, not twice, but every single day. He is there for us, and we should be there to say his name proudly, with pride and happiness. Not every day that we look up to Him does he let us down. He's always there, and he'll always be there for us. Amen.

Chorus:

*He does not disappoint or abandon me; he is not deceitful in his heart
Even when the world lets me down, Jesus is present; he does not disappoint those who trust
him completely*
